Ketchikan Public Library - 2024 Annual Report

In 2024 the Ketchikan Public Library had not fully recovered from the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, but item checkouts and the visitor counts continued to show improvement. This report is a summary of the Library's accomplishments and activities in 2024.

Personnel

Kelly Johnson, who worked at the Library as Office Manager for over 31 years, retired on March 15. During her time at the Library, Kelly was part of several major system changes, the Library's move from Dock Street to Copper Ridge Lane, and personnel shifts that required her to take on complex cataloging and other duties. Most significantly, for the past 15 years Kelly served as champion, advocate and mentor for the Teen Advisory Group (T.A.G.), consisting entirely of teens, which makes recommendations and helps develop Teen collections, programming and services. Kelly is deeply missed by all of us at the Ketchikan Public Library!

In response to Kelly's retirement, the Library made a series of internal promotions and shifts in staff:

- Robert Rice was promoted to Library Operations Manager, a position that replaced the Library Office Manager position.
- Gayle Brooks was promoted to Library Assistant II in Adult & Technical Services, to replace Robert Rice.
- Joao DeMello was transferred to the 39-hour-a-week Library Assistant I position in Adult & Technical Services, to replace Gayle Brooks.
- Arick Mattson was hired into the 21-hour-a-week Library Assistant I position in Adult & Technical Services, to replace Joao DeMello.
- Head of Children's Services Amie Toepfer took over responsibility for Teen collections, programming, and services, and now acts as liaison to the Teen Advisory Group. Amie also took over the cataloging of Children's and Teen materials in all formats.

Other personnel changes and milestones:

- Children's Library Pages Emery Mattson and Braidyn Young both resigned from their positions to pursue other opportunities.
- Head of Adult & Technical Services Lisa Pearson celebrated 25 years at the Library.
- Outreach Librarian Rebecca Brown and Head of Children's Services Amie Toepfer celebrated 5 years at the Library.

Continuing education and conferences:

- Greg Karlik of the Ketchikan Fire Department conducted American Heart Association Heartsaver first aid and CPR training for all Library staff.
- Several Library staff members took one or more Niche Academy training sessions on serving patrons who are unhoused. Niche Academy is provided to Alaska public library staff by the Alaska State Library.
- Amie Toepfer attended the American Library Association Annual Conference in San Diego.
- Pat Tully attended the Alaska Library Association Conference in Juneau in August.

Materials

The Library Advisory Board completed its review of the Library's collection development policy, and the City Council voted to table indefinitely their discussion of the policy. The revised policy is posted on the Library website: <https://www.ketchikanpubliclibrary.org/collection-development>

Inventory: The Library conducted its annual inventory of physical collections February 20-23; 146 items were unaccounted for, or 0.22% of our physical collections.

Children's Book Council Favorite Award: For the second year in a row the Children's Library was chosen to receive 565 children's books and conduct voting on children's favorite new titles. The Library keeps many of these books and donates others to KGB School District libraries.

Circulation: The circulation of physical materials has not yet fully recovered from the pandemic; in 2024 the Library circulated 36% fewer items than in 2019. The circulation of Alaska Digital Library audiobooks and e-books increased 17% over that same period.

Streaming services: With the growing popularity of streaming services for audiobooks, music, and video, the Library has subscribed to several streaming resources:

- Comics Plus – comics and graphic novels for adults, teens and children
- Kanopy – films in their Easy Watching and Documentary categories

Ketchikan Public Library - 2024 Annual Report

- Freegal – music
- Hoopla (to premiere in 2025) – audiobooks, music, films and TV programs.

Challenges:

- This One Summer by Mariko and Jillian Tamaki – After a public hearing and reviews by the Library Director and City Manager, copies of the book were retained in Children and Teen collections.
- Gender Queer by Maia Kobabe – After a public hearing and reviews by the Library Director and City Manager, the book was retained in the Teen collection.

Facilities

The Teen Room was reorganized and its collections weeded to create more group study and display spaces. Library Advisory Board Teen representative Sophia Pilgrim surveyed Kayhi students on what they would like to see in the Teen Room, and Head of Children's Services Amie Toepfer asked the Teen Advisory Group for their suggestions; these results formed the basis of the changes made to the Teen Room.

The Ketchikan Garden Club decorated the Library holiday tree with handmade ornaments for the 2024 holiday season.

Meeting Rooms: In 2024 27 non-profit organizations held 91 meetings and events in Library's two meeting rooms (in addition to the programs co-sponsored by the Library).

Study Rooms: In 2024 the Library's two study rooms were used 921 times, up from 655 times in 2023.

Computers and Internet: The Library's six public computers were used 10,447 times this year, up from 8,373 in 2023. Our wireless network was accessed 8,397 times in 2024, up from 6,111 uses in 2023.

Other things

Kits: In Adult & Technical Services, Shawna Carter prepared craft kits for the Fil-Am Festival and the Christmas Kindness Challenge. The Teen Advisory Group prepared monthly tasting and craft kits for teens to pick up, and Children's Services prepared monthly Family Wonder craft bags for pickup. The Library started offering take-home kits during the pandemic and these have remained surprisingly popular.

Displays: Elsa Snodderly created seasonal displays and décor in the Children's Library, including several interactive displays. Joao DeMello, Lisa Pearson, Robert Rice, Rebecca Brown and Amie Toepfer prepared rotating book displays throughout the Library.

What's On Your Shelf? Outreach Librarian Rebecca Brown interviewed the following people for her monthly column in the Ketchikan Daily News: Dan Ortiz; Caleb Mickel; Jeff Ryan; Marcy Wisnewski; Emery Mattson; Brian Lamon; Evelyn Wilson; Barbara Bigelow; John Pearson.

Landslide closing: The Library was closed to the public from August 26-September 5 due to debris clearance and recovery efforts after the August 25 landslides.

Friends of the Ketchikan Public Library: The Friends of the Library resumed their annual book sale at the Plaza this October and continue to collect donations monthly. In December the Friends approved the purchase of the following items in 2025 using their book sale proceeds:

- Print magazine subscriptions for Outreach patrons
- Contributions to help support Alaska Digital Library (Libby) and Hoopla subscriptions
- Program supplies and reading program prizes
- Purchase and installation of a water bottle filler to replace the drinking fountain in the lobby.
